

An open book with a religious illustration on the cover. The illustration is a composite of several biblical scenes. On the left, an angel with large, feathered wings stands on a pedestal, holding a palm frond aloft in its right hand. In the center, the text 'The book of Revelation' is written in a stylized font. On the right, a large, white lion with a brown mane stands on its hind legs, looking towards the left. In the foreground, a chariot pulled by two brown horses is shown, with a driver and passengers. The entire scene is set against a light, aged background.
